Dear Mr. Newman,

Again, many thanks for your hospitality & the courtesy of Tom Serfass.

Enjoyed studying your book. It is not a Treasury Portrait & Vignette Presentation book, but a special scrapbook of various intaglio printings.

It was ~~appeal~~ apparently prepared by George W. Casilear (he of Heath book fame) as his name appears on most portraits & vignettes, as patented by him. It was given to someone named H.G. JEWE[illegible]L as a sales pitch.

The scrapbook type pages are interleaved by ruled bond paper, for comments & notations. There is no title page or frontispiece. It seems to be circa 1865-70.

The book measures 9" X 12 1/4" X 1" bound in brown 3/4 morocco, hubbed spine with 5 compartments.

I count: Portraits - 4-6+1-1 (by page)
Vignettes - 4-4 "
Designs - 7-10-7-9-10-7-11-11-7-8-4-16-
6-6-5-3-3-4-7(RED & GREEN INK)-2-
(by page)

Perhaps you know of other collectors, who may have the Treasury books, that I may contact for my article & census?

Warmest regards,

Ray
